Filling up of Vacancies of SC|ST

2104. SHRI AJIT P. K. JOGI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) wheher it is a fact that a large number of vacancies in various Departments of the Union and State Governments, reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, have not been filled up during the last three years;

(b) if so, what is the deficit in terms of percantage in the Union Government and in the States of Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar and Rajasthan;

(c) the manner in which Government propose to eliminate this deficit; and

(d) whether Government propose "special recruitment drives" to ensure that all the seats reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes get filled up?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI BIREN SINGH ENGTI): (a) and (b) The information available in respect of various Departments|Ministries is given in the enclosed statement. (See Appendix CXLIII, Annexure No. 91B) the orders|instructions relating to reservation for SC and ST in services apply only to services/posts under the Central Government and not ipso-facto applicable to services under the various State Governments. Vacancies which are reserved for SC/ST candidates, if not filled by SC/ST candidates on account of insufficient number of SC|ST candidates being available are filled up by general category candidates after formal dereservation of the reserved vacancies.

Information in respect of vacancies reserved for SC/ST in the various Groups of services and those filled by SC/ST candidates is collected yearwise in respect of services under the Central Government only. Such information in respect of services under the various State Governments is not maintained by the Union, Goverment.

(c) and (d) Various concessions in age, travelling allowance, minimum standard of selection, relaxation in prescribed period of experience in direct recruitment, total fee exemption and separate interview of candidates belonging to SC/ST communities have, been provided. It is hoped that with these steps the representation of SC/ST in Central Government services will improve further. At present this Ministry does not propose any special recruitment drive.
